Procedure Summary

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi conducts spring, summer, and fall commencement ceremonies. Faculty participation is an important part of these ceremonies.

Procedure

Each academic unit (e.g., college, school, library) shall require its faculty to attend either the fall or spring commencement ceremony annually. Any faculty member who wishes to be excused from a given commencement is responsible for notifying their academic unit dean/director. All faculty who teach during the second summer session and a representative group of faculty librarians shall attend the summer commencement ceremony.
